

Presenting Andy White

Belfast born singer and songwriter Andy White has merged pop sensibility with lyrical excellence, social commentary and acoustic guitars ever since his debut single 'Religious Persuasion' (Stiff Records, 1985) and first album 'Rave On Andy White' (Decca, 1986).

Andy White's new album 'Songwriter' was released in the UK and Europe, September 28, 2009 on Floating World Records. Distribution is through Universal in the UK and Evangeline and its licensees in Europe. Catalogue number FW 034.

The author of several novels, Belfast born Glenn Patterson has been Writer in Residence at the Universities of East Anglia, Cork and Queen's University, Belfast, where he currently teaches on the MA in Creative Writing. He was one of two writers (with poet Bernardine Evaristo) selected by the British Council and the Arts Council to attend the 'Literaturexpress Europa 2000' international literature tour, and has twice chaired the Council's annual Walberberg Seminar. In 2006, he was elected on to Aosdána, the affiliation of Irish Artists. His latest books are The Third Party, published in 2007, and Once Upon a Hill: Love in Troubled Times (2008).
